

EarthDance's YEAH! (Youth Exploring Agriculture & Health) Junior Farm Crew Program

What are you doing this summer?

Be a part of EarthDance's 2015 Junior Farm Crew!

EarthDance Organic Farm School provides opportunities for youth and adults to explore and learn at the site of Missouri's oldest organic farm, located in Ferguson. Members of EarthDance's Junior Farm Crew will participate in organic agriculture at EarthDance Farm and learn about the food system and healthy eating.

Job Benefits:

- Paycheck every two weeks
- Meet and work with other teens working in the local agriculture
- Prepare for future jobs and learn about careers in food, farming, and health

Job Requirements:

- Ability to do farm work outside M-F, 8am-12pm for 9.5 weeks
- Participate in workshops about the food system and personal development
- Must be 16-22 years-old and a resident of the Ferguson-Florissant area

EARTHDANCE IS LOCATED AT 233 S. Dade Avenue, Ferguson, MO, 63135

As a member of the Junior Farm Crew you will:

- Earn $8/ hr, 20 hours per week
- Work and learn with a crew of 10 teens and young adults
- Receive mentorship from a graduate of EarthDance's Farm & Garden Apprenticeship and a Peer Crew Leader
- Learn about organic farming, the food system, and nutrition
- Gain skills in farming, gardening, landscaping, public speaking, and food preparation
- Try fresh vegetables and take home produce weekly

www.earthdancefarms.org

